

Practical Foresight Skills For Everyone Workshop

Our in-person Practical Foresight Skills for Everyone Workshop is a comprehensive workshop that allows us to transfer the knowledge that we have gained and applied to our work for over 20 years of business to you – to use in your life and career.

This workshop aims to empower the participants to take control of their future and to harness foresight tools and resources to navigate our ever-changing world.

By knowing how futures are built and created you can take responsibility for the impact of your everyday actions and decisions on the world. It will mobilise you to join the cause of making a better future – for all.

The workshop is divided into three parts.

Part 1 – Become a futurist (day one)

Part 2 – Play with the future (day one)

Part 3 – Build the future (day two)

This workshop will help you to:

- Confidently know what the future holds.
- Use trends to make the future real and accessible.
- Tap into future creation with your senses and diverse perspectives while creating diverse and inclusive future worlds, products and services that can be real and tangible.
- If you want more personal agency to determine the direction you or your business will go, this workshop is for you.

Eight attendees per workshop, max.
